Angelou College Leadership Awards

The assembly also celebrated students who embodied key IB Learner Profile attributes. Teachers from Angelou College recognised students for characteristics such as being principled, reflective, and caring.

Here are the bullet point entries for these teacher nominations, with all student surnames replaced by their initials:

- Ms Barnes nominated Alex A. (8ANG1) for being a thinker because he works hard, is always open to new ideas, is knowledgeable in his responses, and produces great pieces of work.
- Mr Kalos nominated Andreas P. (10ANG2) for being a communicator, arguably one of the best in the school, whose multilingualism allows him to speak to various members of the LSA community with intelligence and verve. Euxaristo!

- Mr Hill nominated Sam P. (7ANG3) for being balanced because he has a consistently brilliant homework record so far in Year 7 and conducts himself excellently around the academy.
- Ms Nidai nominated George K. (10ANG2) for being principled because he always displays remarkable determination and resilience in all aspects of learning, approaching every challenge with positivity and effort.
- Mr Murphy nominated Charlie R. (9ANG3) for being principled because he has exhibited an exemplary attitude to his learning, completed all homework, shown incredible determination, and has had excellent conduct around the academy.
- Ms Devereux nominated Dominic A. (8ANG1) for being a communicator because he is a kind, empathetic, and supportive individual who looks out for his peers, is reliable, helpful, and has an excellent behaviour record.
- Ms Ashley nominated Anas A. (10ANG2) for being principled because he is a wonderful ambassador for Angelou, a very conscientious and hardworking student.
- Ms Hoff nominated Riley N. (10ANG1) for being balanced because he is an exemplary student who has settled into the Academy really well, works hard, and always does his best.
- Ms Coppola nominated Lukas C. (8ANG3) for being open-minded because he has shown great resilience in settling so well at Stationers' and consistently tries his best.
- Ms Pear nominated Milena H. (10ANG3) for being principled because she is polite, responsible, and caring, and has settled into academy life really well.

Head of College Award

The Head of College Award recognises a pupil who has demonstrated exceptional commitment, positive behaviour, and contribution to their college community. This term, the award goes to Ethan B in 8ANG3'.

Mr Farr, Head of Angelou College, praised Ethan's achievements, saying:

'Ethan is an excellent role model to his peers and has consistently tried hard in his studies. Ethan also continues to have excellent attendance, low negative logs and lots of merits. Keep up the great work!'

Year 11 Awards

At the end of each module, the Y11 team holds a celebration assembly to recognise the achievements of its pupils across a range of areas. These assemblies highlight excellence in attendance, behaviour and attitude that reflect the academy's values of Leadership, Scholarship and Achievement.

- Mr Farr nominated Mikey W. (11ANG4) for a brilliant start, maintaining excellent attendance and gaining merits for his positive attitude.
- Ms Barnes nominated Abigail C. (11ANG2) for being hard working, responding well to feedback, having great attendance, and demonstrating maturity and dedication.
- Mr Kalos nominated Callum L. (11ANG2) for a great start, being a hard-working gentleman who consistently demonstrates maturity, dedication, and a positive attitude.
- Mr Hill nominated Poppy O. (11ANG2) for approaching poems with an open mind and consistently focusing on developing her ideas and understanding.
- Ms Ball nominated Defne K. (11ANG1) for showing great resilience, bravery, and actively seeking support, reflecting her determination to succeed.
- Ms Trute nominated Freddie A. (11ANG2) for a great start, completing revision, taking responsibility for his learning, and approaching lessons with enthusiasm.
- Ms Knight nominated Jason U. (11ANG3) for displaying enthusiasm for the Year 11 challenge, effectively managing his time, and being polite and kind.
- Ms Heslop nominated Mikey W. (11ANG4) (duplicate nomination) for being punctual, having 100% attendance, being polite and kind, and making meaningful contributions in lessons.
